IBM Virtual Machine Facility/370: EXEC User's Guide

I Release 1 PLC 13

This publication is intended for those VM/370 users who want to use the Conversational Monitor System (CMS) EXEC facilities. It includes information on writing an EXEC procedure, using the CMS EXEC facilities and EXEC control statements, and building EXEC procedures. The reader should have an understanding of elementary programming techniques such as branches, loops, and loop control, as well as an understanding of CMS operating procedures, commands, and the CMS Editor.
